FOR BABY'S SKIN SCALP AND HAIR

Something for Mothers to Think About EVERY CHILD born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp, and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz., THE CUTICURA TREATMENT.

Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, gentle anointings with CUTICURA OINT-MENT, to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, to be followed in the severer cases by mild doses of CUTICURA RESOL-VENT PILLS (see below), to cool and soothe the blood, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skin-tormented infants and children and the comfort of worn-out, worried mothers. A single set is often sufficient to cure when the best physicians fail.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itching, and chaps, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and inflammations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for sensitive and delicate faces, and for every sanitary, hygienic purpose, which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

Cuticura Resolvent Pills (Chocolate Coated) are prepared to meet the wants of delicate women, and sensitive children, and are pure, sweet, and tasteless. They are beyond question the most successful blood purifiers and humor cures yet compounded.

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Agents:—Dr. J. C. Watson & Co., Sydney, 21-23, Chancery Lane, London, E.C. 4. French Depot: 10, rue de la Paix, Paris. German Depot: 10, Friedrichstrasse, Berlin. U.S.A.:—All about the skin, face.

THE FAR EAST.

"THE PASSING OF COREA." We take the following article from one of the latest issues to hand of the San Francisco Chronicle, which—dealing as it does with a work recently published by the editor of the Korea Review—is of considerable interest:—

"When Corea resigned her national independence, no more rumours were in circulation regarding the means taken by Japan to secure the great advantage which accrued to her. Some of these rumours took the form of vague charges; but with explanations were tendered and the matter passed. It is now revived, and in a manner demanding the attention of all friendly nations, by the explicit statements made in a book bearing the imprint of one of the foremost publishing firms of this country.
Its author is Homer B. Hulbert, a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, albeit an American, a writer of wide repute and probably the foremost authority upon Korean history now living.

"Upon this neighbouring monarchy it was well known that Japan had for centuries cast covetous eyes. During the year 1905 she was gaining a strong foothold, planting her people and her soldiers there.
She tried to force extraordinary privileges for her immigrants. She succeeded in confiscating lands on a large scale. She demanded and secured valuable fishing rights along the coast. Coast-trading and riparian rights were seized. Although she had solemnly promised, at the beginning of the war with Russia, to preserve the independence of Corea, she now made overtures to establish a protectorate. Early in the fall of 1905 she proposed this protectorate to the Korean Emperor, who instantly repudiated it, refusing in the plainest terms.

He saw that the Japanese were determined to achieve this end, but he also knew that if he held firm it could not be done without arousing the indignation of the world. In this crisis he endeavored to lodge a protest at Washington, looking to the United States as Corea's best friend, and depending upon our treaty of 1883, which pledges mutual interference and aid in case of injury by a third party. It was impossible to lodge this protest through the Korean Foreign Office, for that was in control of a person "in the sleeve" of Japan; therefore, a personal and private communication—an eloquent appeal from a weak and threatened nation—was dispatched to the President of the United States, calling attention to Japanese wrongs in Corea, and asking the President to investigate the situation and help Corea. That message was dispatched from Corea in October, 1905, at the hand of Mr. Hulbert, but the Japanese spy on the steamer at Yokohama discovered the exact hour when the message would arrive in Washington, and from that hour events were hurried to their culmination in the

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.
This is a condition so distinct to which doctors give much money, but which few people understand. It simply weakens—a break-down, as it were, of the body system, and its origin is various. No matter what may be the cause (for they are almost numberless), the symptoms remain the same. Nervousness, depression of spirits, loss of protection or resistance, degeneration of spirits and loss of energy for the work of the day. Now, weariness is absolutely essential at such cases is inferior to the following:
VITAL STRENGTH AND ENERGY to throw off these mental fogues, and experience proves that at night accords the day this may be secured by a carefully selected tonic called "The Evening Lamp."

than by any other known combination. So say all who have taken it in accordance with the printed directions accompanying it. It will do marvellous things for you.
THE EVENING LAMP OR LIME LIGHTED UP AGAIN! and a new existence imparted in place of what has hitherto been worn-out, "used up," and exhausted. This wonderful restorative is purely vegetable and innocuous, is agreeable to the taste suitable for all climates, and does not irritate in either sex and it is difficult to imagine a case of illness or derangement, whose main features are those of debility, that will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this extraordinary nerve, blood-strengthening, and digestive tonic. Its solution everything that had preceded it for this side-grip-spring concern that often accompanies nervous debility.
THERAPION is a medicinal compound consisting of 23 and 40. Purchasers should see that the word "Therapion" appears on British Government stamps which will be found on each bottle, and is sent free by post by order of Mr. H. J. BAKER, Ltd., General Agents, without which it is a forgery.

AN ATTACK OF CROUP WARDEN OFF.

OUR little girl, two and one-half years old, woke up coughing with the croup one evening recently. We happened to have some of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on hand and gave her two doses of it. She went back to sleep and woke up the next morning without a trace of cold. It is certainly a great medicine, says A. J. Loughlin, editor of St. Louis Globe, U.S.A. An attack of croup can always be warded off by giving this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail. It contains no harmful drug and may be given to the smallest child with perfect confidence. For sale by all chemists and druggists.
